

Join us on May 7, 2015 at the historic Vogue Theatre to hear information about:

December 2014 flood observations
Sea level rise risk in Sackville
The state of the dykes
72-hour Emergency Preparedness

This free event is open to the public. Food and refreshments will be available.

This event is being held as part of the Town of Sackville Municipal Plan Review Process and we will be seeking anonymous feedback through an interactive question and answer session.
